Forecast for Tuesday 04 Jul 2023

Weather: Remaining unsettled on Tuesday as a spell of more persistent rain during the morning eases to leave sunshine and showers which may turn heavy at times, as well as a low risk of thunder. Winds gradually strengthening, turning breezy in the afternoon though winds lighter than recent days, however they may turn blustery for a time in and around any heavy showers.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 30% increasing to 80% through the morning.

Low cloud and visibility: Low cloud with bases around 400m, mainly across western slopes, will lift and break through the morning, with any cloud above the summits by midday, although cloud may lower to shroud higher peaks from time to time in heavier showers. Generally good visibility, but poor in any low cloud to start or daytime heavy showers.

Meteorologist's View

Blustery conditions, especially in and around any heavy showers, will make for fairly arduous walking, particularly across exposed or elevated routes and east of major ridges. Heavy showers may also makes paths slippery, so planning alternative routes may be required.
